

iSCHANNEL

Vol. 3, Issue 1, September 2008

From the Convener

It has been inspiring to see the iSChannel make its third edition, and go from strength to strength. As the Editor of the Journal of Information Technology, I know only too well what goes into setting up and running a journal - the staff and students have done a great job so far and I am sure that each new wave of students will contribute and develop the Journal further. I also have great respect for the Journal's objectives. In particular, providing the opportunity to develop the discipline of writing for a journal is hugely valuable. Meeting deadlines, writing well, developing coherent ideas and marshalling evidence are very valuable skills for students and their future careers whether in academic or working life. Also being involved in the creation and delivery of the journal provides very good learning experiences. This is a very creative and highly useful venture which I have supported enthusiastically from the start. So far everyone involved has derived immense benefit from the iSChannel. And it helps to underpin the longstanding reputation of the Information Systems and Innovation Group for its focus on student support and development. I look forward very much to the next edition!
